"Stan Baby,"
You're just somethin' else!
You're one of the greatest guys in this school. I'll never forget you - and our Spanish class. (Laugh it up!) I'll always treasure our friendship. Keep up your piano and you'll be another Van Cliburn!! Really! Stay sweet and behave yourself at O.U. Remember what we talked about in Spanish the day we got in trouble for writing notes. Good luck and may God richly bless you. (Don't forget to write me!)

You're a really great guy and she enjoyed knowing you. With your marvelous personality I know you'll really go far. Good luck for always. Have fun at OU next year. Katie O'Brien

Good luck always. Angie

Stan, I got to go to grad school this year. I've been a Spanish teacher for a year. I don't forget me. You're a great guy so stay in years to come. Love Cookie

Stan, You are one of the nicest boys that I know. Having me in trouble getting a class with you has been wonderful. Wish I still like you. have, Susan

Stan,
To the nicest boy I know.
Even though you are always getting 3 B's I have.

Susan

So Stan you a nice guy. I wish you all the luck in the future. Be good.
Barbara Amitage

Stan,
you are a very neat boy so stay that way. We have a lot in Butts room. Good luck in the future.

Stan, never forget all the fun we've had since we were little. Stay the great guy you are now, and I know the future will be wonderful. Love ya, Jam R.

Stan,
Thanks for helping me so much in WJ this year. You are really a great guy. We enjoyed all our "parties" and even the hard work we put in. Try not to get into too much trouble next year cause I know how naughty you are sometimes.
Love, Cindy (21. 68)

Stan,
You are a very talented guy in every way. I wish you good luck - but I don't think you'll need it. Stay forever have fun and you'll never have worries! God bless you,

Education is not just an assimilation of knowledge, but also a collection of experiences. A student is exposed to so many ideas, situations, and emotions that his high school years may well be the most important period of his life. During this time an unfolding process takes place that slowly reveals a completely new individual. Each year is a prolonged "happening." We are pressured, restricted, praised, tested, commended, and graded. We experience emotions of confusion, despair, anger, complacency, and ecstasy. Through this year's Caldron, we hope to give you a pictorial review of our 1967-68 happening.

. . . and Dedication.

Because she has worked for and with us, because she has given generously of her time and wisdom, the 1968 Caldron staff wishes to pay tribute to one who has become a genuine part of Shawnee High School.

In return for the innumerable hours that she has unselfishly contributed as a pep club sponsor, cheerleader advisor, and tennis coach, as well as her outstanding service as girls physical education teacher, we express our gratitude and sincere appreciation by dedicating the 1968 Caldron to Mrs. Christine Reynolds.

grammatically incorrect but I hope you'll

The members of the School Board set the policies for the Shawnee Public Schools and all school employees. Any purchases, construction, employees, etc., must first be approved by the School Board. School Board members are, (from left to right), Jerrell Chesney, Assistant Superintendent; Glen Davis; Roy Marler; Cecil Johnston; Dr. Bob McLaughlin, President; Jack Wyrick; Dr. James Tanner; W. E. James; and Dr. Don Owen, Superintendent.

Owen and Chesney Assist

Dr. Don Owen: Superintendent of Shawnee Public Schools.

It has been great knowing you these past few years. You are a great person. Best wishes for your future.

in School Board Proceedings

Dr. Don Owen, Superintendent of Shawnee Public Schools, is the official representative for the Shawnee School System. He is in charge of all school activities and recommends all school employees and prospective teachers to the School Board. He also acts as a buffer between the school system and the School Board. As superintendent he serves on many state committees such as the Oklahoma Textbook Committee.

Mr. Jerrell Chesney, Assistant Superintendent of Shawnee Public Schools, works directly with Dr. Owen on all school projects. He interviews and recommends to Dr. Owen all prospective teachers and school employees. Mr. Chesney is also in charge of the federal programs.

Mr. Jerrell Chesney: Assistant Superintendent of Shawnee Public Schools.

Pipps Named

This year, under the direction of Elmo Pippis, our new principal, Shawnee High School saw many changes. Mr. Pippis has worked hard to establish an image of Shawnee High School as an outstanding school in all respects and to convey to the students the importance of maintaining this image.

Being a high school principal is not an easy job. One of the first people at school, Mr. Pippis begins his day with parent conferences. All mail arrives at 10:00 A.M., and the task of answering all correspondence is a demanding one.

At the end of the first semester, Mr. Pippis must begin planning the class schdeule for the next school year. Conflicts must be resolved and new classes organized. Mr. Pippis also works with various subject matter committees and supervises classroom teaching. In addition to this, he must complete state reports—all to the continuous interruption of the telephone.

When he is not serving the students of S.H.S., Mr. Pippis is attending meetings of local organizations such as the Kiwanis Club or board meetings such as the Council of Campfire Girls.

New Principal

What would the students of Shawnee High School do without the sound advice of our counselors, Joe Mastrogiovanni and Ola Mae Clarke? Students know that either of our counselors are always willing to lend a listening ear to the many problems that can plague a high school student.

Whether it be promoting a charity drive, coaching football, or dealing with a disciplinary problem, Shawnee High School's new vice-principal, Mr. Bob Williams, is always there. Despite his many duties, Coach Williams is always ready with a word of encouragement or a helping hand.

Will the Work

Margaret Deam

JoAnn Carlton

Smoothness and efficiency are the words best used to describe the Board of Education office. The office of the superintendent is fortunate to have secretaries that are an asset. Greeting office visitors is the duty of Mrs. JoAnn Carlton. Theresa Myers fulfills the job of clerk for the School Board. Supervision of the lunch program is the task of Mrs. Marjorie Searle. Assisting in a secretarial capacity are Mrs. Betty Kasterke, Mrs. Margaret Deam, and Mrs. Mae Hudson.

Office Staff Works Diligently

Mrs. Yost: Mr. Pipp's secretary and school registrar.

Mr. Robert Barnard: Attendance Counselor, world history.

Mrs. Zurmehly: Office secretary.

The work for the office staff never ends. They have an endless number of tasks to do. Mr. Barnard, the attendance counselor, checks tardies and absences. Among the many duties of Mrs. Zurmehly and Mrs. Yost, SHS secretaries, is the printing of the daily bulletins.

Helpers of Shawnee High

Preparing a well-balanced hot lunch for hungry SHS students is the duty undertaken daily by the cooks, Ruby Nixon, Kathryn Shields, Cora Hayward, Mildred Bartosh, and Thelma Compton.

Custodians of Shawnee High School, Lee Walker, Ruby Spaugy, Lestie Spaugy, Raymond Peltier, Jack Wadsack, Karl Tawney, and Bill Cox at T. & I., work hard to keep our school spotless.

Science Tests Our Curiosity

Mr. J. D. Williamson: Physics, Biology, National Biological Honor Society Sponsor.

Chemistry—a study of the minute particles that compose every substance known to man—is a field which is rapidly expanding. We already have more elements than our parents had; and with the development of the atomic and hydrogen bombs, students of Chemistry now have much more information to assimilate.

PURPOSE: To convey knowledge of physics, to stress accuracy, and to promote scientific curiosity.
APPARATUS: A laboratory classroom equipped with textbooks and scientific paraphernalia.
PROCEDURE: Through lectures and assignments instill in the minds of students a workable knowledge of physics. Through experimentation reveal the necessity of accuracy and arouse the scientific curiosity of students.

Mr. R. L. Bailey: Chemistry, Biology, National Biological Honor Society Sponsor, Junior Sponsor.

Through mathematics we learn to use logic to solve problems. We develop orderly minds and establish a systematic thought process. Because of our ability to reason logically, we are able to understand problems which might have unnecessarily confused us. Finally, we learn to apply this logic to our lives.

Mr. Gordon Biswell: Algebra I, Geometry, Senior Sponsor.

Mr. Charles Hoyle: Algebra I and II, Chemistry.

Miss Evelyn Martin: Algebra II, Mathematical Analysis, Junior Sponsor.

Math Challenges Our Reasoning

Miss Josie Washichek: English IV, Sophomore Class Sponsor. Mrs. Berniece Dinius: English IV.

Mrs. Mildred Van Wagner: English III, Junior Class Sponsor.

English

Mrs. Frances David: English III, Journalism I and II, FJA Sponsor, Wolves Journal Sponsor.

Mrs. La Homa Williamson: English III and IV, Caldron Advisor.

Mrs. Vivian Spurlock: English II.

Mrs. Nancy Hinson: English II, Sophomore Class Sponsor.

The Study of Communication

Without valuable grammar rules, written communication would be a mass of tangled words and phrases. Understanding of one another would lapse and as a result, human relations as we know them today would be at an end. Oral communication is probably more affected by our knowledge of the English language than written communication. A striking impression can be destroyed by a single blunder in speech. Without rules to apply to our speech, communication between even English-speaking peoples would be difficult, if not impossible. Without a means of expressing himself, man would not be man at all.

Mrs. Macsene Biswell: Reading Lab, Senior Sponsor, FTA Sponsor.
Mrs. Faye Davenport: assistant to Mrs. Biswell and Mrs. Reynolds.

Mrs. Joyce Pippis: Library Science, Library Club Sponsor, Senior Class Sponsor.

Don't forget to be the same without you next year. All that good advice! Macsene Biswell

Fine Arts Broaden Cultural Horizons

Mr. William Malone: Beginning Art, Advanced Art, Trade Art.

Mr. J. F. Johnson: Girls' Chorus, Mixed Chorus, Girls' Ensemble, Select Choir. Mr. Paul Boone: Orchestra.

The aim of all fine arts instructors is to develop the natural abilities of each student. Drama, speech, and forensics students cultivate the art of public speaking and correctness of expression. Art students demonstrate their creativity and skill in weekly displays. Band students perform intricate drills before the student body during the football season as well as participating in parades and contests. Orchestra concerts provide a welcome diversion in concert assemblies. Members participate in state-wide contests and perform occasionally for the public.

Miss Judith Michener: Speech, Drama I and II, Forensics, Stagecraft, Thespian Sponsor.

Mr. Jim Emery: Music Theory. Mr. Harry Petree: Band.

Mrs. Diana Curson: French I, II, and III, French Club Sponsor.

Le deseo puente y alegría

Miss Mary Trinkle: Spanish I, II, III, and IV; Spanish Club Sponsor; Honor Society Sponsor.

History Promotes Understanding

Mr. John Shoemaker: World History, visual aids, global geography, Oklahoma history.

Mr. James Hagan: U.S. history, junior high coach.

Students at SHS discovered that history is not just the study of an endless procession of dates and events. Rather, it is a study of the lives of real people, the birth and development of the nations of the world, and the problems and conflicts which have at the same time divided and united mankind.

Miss Helen Hendrick: Penmanship and spelling, U.S. history.

of Mankind

Mr. Clifton Hill: U.S. history I and II.

Mr. Alva Wells: U.S. history III, senior sponsor.

Mrs. J. Smith: World history, basic English II.

Mr. Walker Butts: U.S. government, U.S. history III.

Mrs. Kay Scruggs: Typing I, Advanced Typing I, Typing II, Pep Club Sponsor.

Mr. Alton Smith: Typing I, Advanced Typing I.

asdfjkl;asdfjkl;asdfjkl;asdfjkl;

Mrs. Allean Walker: Bookkeeping, Shorthand I and II, Notehand, Honor Society Sponsor.

To the Business Department goes the job of preparing students for the future. Students are prepared for either immediate employment or higher education. Notehand is helpful for taking notes in college classes. After completing courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, general business, and consumer economics, the student has an excellent understanding of the business world.

Mr. Dennis Price: Consumer Economics, General Business, Basketball Coach.

Where the Action Is!

Mr. Gene Abney: Boys' P.E., Coach.

Students at SHS know that a sound body is as important as a sound mind. A variety of physical activities are offered, including archery, basketball, whiffleball, ping pong, volleyball, trampoline, tumbling, and dancing for the girls, and basketball, slaughterball, boxing, calisthenics, and bowling for the boys. By offering a course in Drivers' Education, Shawnee High School is helping to produce safe and skillful drivers. This year Debbie Hopkins, Hirschell Emery, Chuck Lord, and David Williams participated in a televised quiz about safe driving.

Mr. Sydney Beames: Drivers' Ed.

Mrs. Christine Reynolds: Girls' P.E., Girls' Tennis, Pep Club Sponsor, Cheerleaders' Advisor.

Mr. Frank Kennon: Drivers' Ed., Coach.

Preparing Today for the World Tomorrow

Plan your future today.
You should start now.
Don't think about the future.
Just do it.

Through teaching the basics of the business field, the Distributive Education and Diversified Occupations Departments offer students the opportunity to gain on-the-job training.

By taking a course in Vocational Agriculture, a student interested in a career related to farming may obtain practical knowledge of soil conditions, prevention of erosion, and other phases of agriculture.

Mr. Otto Krausse: Vocational Agriculture I, II, III, and IV.

Mrs. Juanita Wallace: D.E. I and II, DECA Sponsor.

Mr. J. G. Hill: Director, D.O.

Mr. Paul Milburn was selected to head the vocational and industrial departments of Shawnee High School. This means that he is in charge of coordinating programs for the home economics department, vocational agriculture, and T & I.

By taking a course in home economics or family living, students of Shawnee High have an opportunity to gain knowledge that will prove invaluable when they take over the responsibilities of a home.

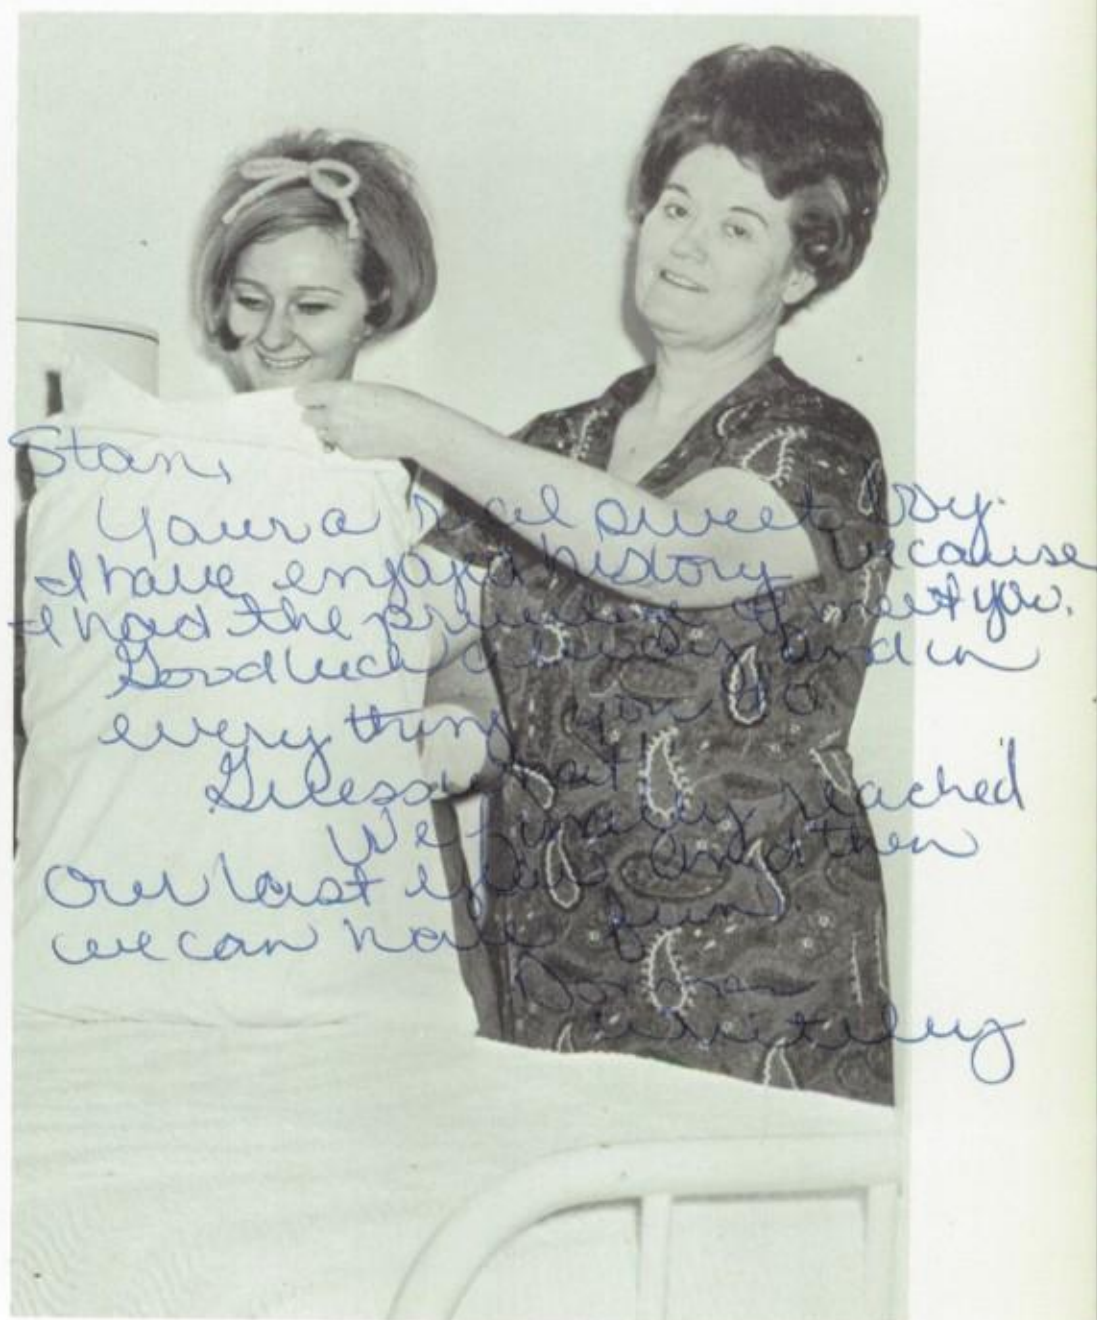

Milburn Heads Vocational Departments

Mrs. Mary Ellen Lazenby: Home Ec. II, III.

Mrs. Louise Tucker: Home Ec. II, IV, Family Living.

Mr. Ross: Carpentry.

At the Trade and Industrial department of Shawnee High School, students learn a trade which will enable them to begin work immediately after high school. Students take regular required courses for half a day at the main building and then go to the T & I building for the remainder of the day to study their respective trades. The practical knowledge gained by attending T & I is invaluable to the students who will later take an active part in industry.

Mr. Raymond Branson: Electronics.

Mr. Burkhardt: Auto Mechanics.

Mr. J. C. Vaster: Drafting.

Assume Responsibilities

Stan,
He lay down and to the right looks intelligent and seems to be in deep thought. Remember him as such. Next year is very important

Larry Purkey, Beth McDaniel, and Luther White discuss topics of interest to teens on Teen Talk.

Giving students a chance to voice opinions on school activities is the main objective of Student Council. One of the main projects of Student Council this year was "Operation Chewing Gum," a drive to collect gum to send to the American soldiers in Vietnam. Other activities included Teen Talk, coronations, elections, toothbrush salw, talent show, and the sponsoring of an AFS student.

To you and me, but this last something. Friendship with you has been a growing thing which manifests itself more each year.

Cheering the Wolves on to victory, talking with friends, and playing tennis, Su Corfe enjoys her year at SHS.

SHS Welcomes Su

Preparing for dinner are Mignon, Randall, Su, Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rogers, and Celia.

Dear Friends of Shawnee High,

Time has really flown from the day that I learned I was to come to Shawnee, Oklahoma. I must confess that I had no idea where Oklahoma was, much less Shawnee.

Everyone here, teachers and students alike, has played a tremendous role in making my stay a memorable and eventful one. I'm sure that in the future I will always treasure that part of my life that was spent in Shawnee. I could not have asked for a nicer family and friends than I have here. They will always remain a part of me and hold a place in my thoughts.

There will be many things to remember: waiting in the luncheon line, yelling at the Wolves' games, fighting with books in my crowded locker, or just sitting in a lesson with the other students. After only one year I feel that this is my school, and I am so proud of it.

The loneliness I feel as I leave will not be sadness, but joy because you and I together have expanded our ability to understand, to work, to play, even though we have very different backgrounds. Maybe you and I can make a contribution to even greater understanding among people everywhere.

Goodbye is too sad a word so—

See ya,

Su

With their Mascot, "Gagdarkll the Great," stagecraft students are Larry Smith, Rick Allison, Don Wells, Mike Cass, Kent Payne, Phil Sellers, Pat Weigant, and Miss Judith Michener. Stagecraft students are carefully chosen by drama and speech teacher Miss Michener. Among many of the responsibilities of stagecraft, taking care of the stage and building sets are prominent.

An organization for those interested in the field of drama is Thespians. Meeting every second and fourth Tuesday each month, members gathered to discuss various plans. Among these plans a fund raising project, in order to buy new curtains for the drama stage, was carried out. Throughout the year many one act plays were produced by Thespians.

Representing SHS in debate are the debate teams. In May qualified members began their preparation to debate the topic concerning scrims. Hours were devoted to research, the main challenge in debate. After the final tournament in May, debaters will begin research for next year.

Illustrating duties of a dramatist are Thespians.

Activities Are Helpful To SHS Dramatists

Bob Cornelius, Jon Anderson, Dean Gardner, and Grover Dunn talk with Mrs. Cutlip about debating.

Band Captures

The marching season of the Shawnee Band was highlighted by parades, football games, and contests. In state competition at Capitol Hill the band, the drum major, and the twirlers each captured first place in their division. The band also participated in Shawnee's Christmas parade and gave several concerts all under the direction of Harry Petree.

Supporting the mighty Wolves and promoting school spirit has been the ideal of the SHS Pep Club. The many members reached their goal by wearing blue and white on game days, making encouraging signs, cheering in support of the Wolves, and attending both home and out-of-town games. Pep assemblies were also arranged to inspire and honor the Wolves.

Musical Cheers Bolster SHS Spirit

Promoting school spirit is the motive of the Shawnee High School pep band and cheerleaders. Their vitality and loyalty have kept hopes high throughout the '67-'68 sports season.

The SHS cheerleaders have worked very hard this year preparing yells, organizing assemblies, and leading the student body in support of the mighty Wolves. Their energy has been unending and their spirits never low.

Working with the cheerleaders in promoting school spirit has been the SHS pep band under the leadership of Larry Purkey. They adopted a new name, one very appropriate to SHS—the Wolfgang.

Orchestra Develops Talents

Cathy Scheidt made All-State Orchestra for the third year.

Daily practice prepared the Shawnee High School Orchestra for its busy year. Several concerts highlighted the year's activities. The orchestra participated in the District Contest at Ada and in the Oklahoma State Music Festival at Stillwater. During the year several visiting conductors directed the orchestra.

Dear Stan: You have been a splendid accompanist and I have appreciated your help in the orchestra very much. Will miss you next year.
Paul L. Boone

Mr. Wayne Mueller, director of the Oklahoma State University Orchestra, gives some suggestions to Cathy Scheidt and Sarah Putnam.

Sorting the pop bottles, Paul Knox, Virginia Lazenby, and Belinda Puckett talk of the successful drive.

Portraying Christmas in Mexico, members built a float for the Christmas parade.

Spanish Club Sponsors Students

Virginia Lazenby, chosen queen, represents Spanish Club.

Much spirit was shown by members of the Adelante Spanish Club. This year members have participated in the annual pop-bottle drive and "El Feo" contest to earn the money needed to send their chosen couple to Guanajuato, Mexico. Monthly meetings were held at which speakers brought slides and trinkets which added to the learning of Spanish students.

Officers: Priscilla Warner, president; Katie O'Brien, recording secretary; Belinda Puckett, vice-president; Virginia Lazenby, roll secretary; and Miss Trinkle, sponsor.

P.S. I'll come see you at S.U.

Working on their float for the parade were Amy Wolfe, Nick Wavers, and Susan Berry.

Newly formed this year, French Club was challenged by a large membership. The club's membership was open to students who were taking French II and III and to those who had completed one semester of French I. For the Shawnee Christmas Parade the members built a float that won second place in the high school division. With the help of Mrs. Curson, the sponsor, meetings were filled with the discussion of French customs.

Clubs Make Comeback to SHS

Christmas spirit was shown by French Club members who stand waiting to have their costumes judged.

Students interested in the field of journalism are members of Future Journalists of America. Reorganized this year, they visited the Oklahoma Publishing Company and were represented at the OIPA spring conference. As a Christmas project, members collected food and toys, giving these to underprivileged children at a Christmas party. Meetings were held either before or after school every two weeks. At the evening meetings, speakers about the topic of the field of journalism were presented.

Dedicated to their work, staff members prepare the paper for sale.

Believing that copy must be RIGHT, Gwen Crabtree and Priscilla Warner keep careful watch over Linda Lake.

Wolves Journal Covers

Again this year the Wolves Journal staff was faced with the challenge of making a better newspaper than the year before. Under the supervision of Mrs. Frances David, the staff worked diligently to meet this challenge and portray the news of Shawnee High School.

AFS student, Su Corfe, busily writes her story for the paper.

During Distributive Education Week, Jack Honeywell, Ronnie Phillips, Jerry Cross, and Elizabeth Sanders view the accomplishments as recorded by earlier D.E. Clubs in their scrapbooks.

Rhonda Herrell, this year's D.E. Sweetheart, spends her afternoons as salesgirl at Newton Wall.

The Distributive Education Club is one of the most active clubs in Shawnee High School. In class, business techniques and practices are studied and later applied to the members' after-school jobs.

Busy as the members are, they still have time for money-making projects. One of these was their candy sale in the fall, which provided the funds for their annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

Regular early-morning breakfast meetings are held in order to take care of important business.

This year's Outstanding Student award went to Gary Morris. Gary is shown here with Rhonda Herrell, D.E. Sweetheart.

Interpreting the emblem of VICA at the T & I open house were Leland Williams, Danny Bunney, Rodney Parker, Mike Wiley, Steve Howard, Steve Farris, and Jimmy Welch.

"Mrs. Williamson, have you bought your VICA candy?" asked VICA members Bill Green, Roy Winkelman, and Verlon Piersey.

Tomorrow's Workers Are Today's Students

Preparing students for their role is the purpose of VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. The Shawnee chapter is the tenth largest in the nation. The club carried out several projects this year. One of their major activities was raising money for the Cosmopolitan Children's Home in Wewoka. VICA also sponsored and conducted an assembly during national VICA week.

The 1967-68 DO Sweetheart Connie Fincher is seated between runners-up Iris Jones and Marilyn Day.

Preparing Thanksgiving favors for the local nursing homes are Lynn Loftis, Donna Kinnamon, Jackie Little, and Kathy Gouker.

Future Homemakers Serve The Community

Myrna Christian assists Santa in presenting gifts to the children at the FHA Christmas party.

The Shawnee Chapter of FHA has served the community in various ways. The club initiated the national theme of "Make America Beautiful" by securing a proclamation from Mayor Taron proclaiming October 9-14 "Clean Up Week" in Shawnee. Other service projects included making Thanksgiving favors for local nursing homes and giving a Christmas party for children.

The formal initiation and installation was conducted by the local FFA.

Rosalie Whitely, Marilyn Kinnamon, and Marlene Davis watch as Mayor Taron signs the proclamation for "Clean Up Week."

The FFA members carried out their motto of "Learning to Do; Doing to Learn; Earning to Live; Living to Serve" by organizing VA-Ot, Vocational Agriculture Occupational Training Program. Members participated in the County Fair and also in the Junior Fat Stock Show. The first annual Pork Roast was held as a fund raising and community promotion project.

Businessmen and FFA members alike enjoyed the first annual Pork Roast.

FFA officers: Leslie Blair, vice-president; Walter Fair, chaplain; Bill Carpenter, president; Jerry Loader, treasurer; William Justice, sentinel; Bill White, secretary; David Stewart, reporter; and Jimmy French, parliamentarian.

Mike Johnston and Jane Patterson are elected Mr. and Miss Future Teacher.

Jane Patterson, president of Future Teachers, takes time to explain details of future plans to individual members.

Preparing Now for Future Teaching

Beginning to prepare now for the job of teaching in the future is one of the goals of the Future Teachers Club. They have learned the joy of serving others through several service projects. Having a Christmas party for Faith 7 school children and sending Valentines to soldiers in Viet Nam were two of the projects.

The climax of their year was the experience of teaching in the grade schools and the choosing of their Mr. and Miss Teacher, Mike Johnston and Jane Patterson.

Future Teachers officers are Kathy Gouker, Marlene Davis, Mary Ann McGee, Bob Cornelius, and Kay Kelly. Their sponsor is Mrs. Gordon Biswell.

Library Club officers were Susan Berry, chaplain; Diane McKinley, secretary-treasurer; Celia Rogers, president; and Twana Kennedy, vice-president.

Librarians Serve SHS

Members of the Library Club have served SHS by working in the library and ushering at the talent show. The librarians also enjoyed a Valentine party and attended the OSLA Convention at Oklahoma University. Celia Rogers served as state chaplain.

Latin Club Studies Roman Culture

Helping students to understand more fully the purpose of Latin, Latin Club sponsored the study of Roman customs. Many speakers explained the religion, superstitions and myths of the Romans. Illustrating Roman influence, the club made Christmas cards and entered a float in the Shawnee Christmas parade. A Roman banquet was held this May as the final activity of the year.

Latin Club was organized in 1967-68. The officers were Mike Johnston, president; Ben Monroe, vice-president; Dawna Cherry, roll secretary; Ann Hillis, secretary-treasurer; and Freddy Turner, sergeant-at-arms.

Outstanding Athletes Serve School Through S-Club

The S-Club of SHS provides two reliable and needed services at every home football and basketball game. These services are of selling refreshments and programs to the public.

Helping Steve Richards plan a solid campaign for the office of governor are Kent Payne and Mr. John Clifton.

Teenagers Learn To Govern State

Climaxing the busy year of learning the phases of government was the unique responsibility of sponsoring a governor candidate, Steve Richards.

As host for the 1968 pre-legislature, Shawnee had the duty of preparing books for use at the winter session on the OU campus.

SCAMP, the informal name for the Y.G. motion tables, is shown here with Larry Purkey and Mark Collum, the two who have given her tender-loving care this year.

Rising to speak or debate "on the floor" is sometimes a difficult thing to do for a first-year student, but attempting the task is Susan Pinsker.

Reminiscing an eventful year as 1968 Hi-Y Sweetheart is Jan Black.

A bake sale and a rummage sale were two of the Hi-Y money-making projects for 1968. In the spring, the Apple Polishers' Banquet was held to honor the favorite SHS teachers.

Dixie Melson was chosen Hi-Y Sweetheart for 1969. This choice was revealed at the Sweetheart Dance held in February.

"Y" Clubs Strive for

Tim Shaw, Jan Black, and Larry Purkey wonder if the cold weather will hamper the success of the Hi-Y bake sale.

Some of the 1968 Hi-Y officers are Jack Kinkade, Bill White, Craig Young, Bob Junk, Steve Richards, Don Steveson, and Jim Wallace.

Among the many projects conducted or aided by the Tri-Hi-Y were the gum drive for the soldiers in Viet Nam and Christmas baskets for needy families. Volunteer members also served as ushers for several children's theatres.

Chosen for the 1968 Snowman was Tom Jones. This event highlighted the year for Tri-Hi-Y.

Getting acquainted with his natural environment is Tri-Hi-Y Snowman, Tom Jones.

Christian Leadership

Tri-Hi-Y officers for first and second semester are Sally French, Bonnie Hughes, Debbie Hopkins, Diana Burlie, Jan Black, Sandy Hayes, Gayle Thompson, Beth McDaniel, Susan Bowles, Carol Hulum, Rhonda Gauchat, and Lynda Denham.

Silently contemplating the dresses and designs to be used in the spring style show are Tri-Hi-Y members, Kim Kendall and Susan Bowles.

Law Analysis members direct their attention to their guest Richard Steed, a Shawnee attorney.

Clubs Are Beneficial to Future Careers

Officers of Law Analysis are Freddy Turner, president; Lloyd Harris, secretary; Roger Henson, treasurer; Judge Carter, sponsor; Mike Coker, chairman of the board.

Under the advice and guidance of Judge Glen Dale Carter, members of Law Analysis study the works of law. Each year members present trial situations which help them to understand the fundamentals of law. This year they attended the University of Oklahoma to observe the law school.

To learn the science of rocket engineering is one of the main activities of ROEX. Members of ROEX build their own rockets and launch these rockets themselves. This past year they have launched a rocket at the Scout-O-Rama and completed many other activities.

Presenting their skills, ROEX invite the public to their launches.

Future Nurses are shown the combination it takes to raise and lower a bed.

Leon Walker, president of Medical Explorers, puts up an oxygen tank while working.

Those interested in the field of nursing become members of Future Nurses of America. Working in hospitals, clinics, and nursing homes, FNA members get first-hand observations of the life of a nurse.

Similar to FNA, Medical Explorers helps boys to understand what the field of medicine really is. Those who belong to Medical Explorers work in hospitals and are able to observe the doctor and his routine.

Medical Explorers attend meetings at Mission Hill Hospital.

Stanley,
I don't really know what to say - only that you are really great.
I have really enjoyed the last year. You are really a wonderful person. Please change. God bless you.
You do. God love you.

Dear Sir - (Yes, we are sitting formal.)

If you ever find that house half way between Stillwater and Norman - let me know. I'm still waiting!!

Even if you are going to OU next year I'm gonna miss you like ??*!!

Even if the stork is a fink, (It ain't my fault, honey) I'm still gonna miss you. Why I don't know - but I am.

When you are at OU - remember that you've got a wife and remember your responsibility!! (To her, you dumb, dumb.)

If we ever get around to having any kids - I hope they are as neat as you think you are. (what a chop!!) (However, it's not my fault we haven't had any kids!! (I think there's been a slip up somewhere!))

Well, I'm ~~perhaps~~ running out of room - so stay neat and THE STORK IS A FINK!

Love ya,

Stan,

You are a great guy: a good friend of mine. I want you to know that I think you did a very good job as editor of the Halves Journal - too bad I wasn't on the staff - I would have probably made ya regret your job - not intentionally! Ha! I hope you have the very best in life! Good Education is but a foundation.

The progressive student must add his own ideas to those of his teachers.

Love, Janet Larabee
Seniors '68

Do you like Coker's quote? Ha!

Stan,

This year has been more fun than ever. It been a regular "laugh-in" I really only have one last thing to say

"Have come to judge!"

Ann Pettis
(Advertising Manager) 68-69

P.S. If you don't go to O.S.U. I guess O.W. will do.

Stan,

You are a great guy I had fun at leg sitting in front of you. I've enjoyed knowing you and being your friend and being your love Amy Wag

My Dearest Stan,
you are a super-swell guy and my very favorite person. I wish you were still a sophomore and a whole mess all over again. I'll miss you more than anything. I really will. You're a cool guy. Stay cool! Love, Amy

Stan,
You're a really great pianist, and a very good guy. Stay that way and you'll go far.
Good luck.

Stan,
You're a really great guy. I know you have enjoyed
playing piano in orchestra
Be a good boy next year

Stan, had lots of fun
We have had lots of fun in Orchestra; but it has been kind of hard to put up with you. (not really). Hope you have fun this summer.

You are one of the neatest SENIORS I know. Be good and Remember Josie's class and the good times we've had. Good luck in the future + Remember me - Marilyn Anderson "Gr. 68"

Stan,

The man Oliver, it's been fun having you in my history class, and watching you put on your contacts in Spanish. "Keep it cool" and you'll be a winner!!

Milton Blakely

Brent:
It has truly been a pleasure knowing you. Even though you're the greatest piano player in the world I still wish you success. Keep on keeping on.
A Friend Always
Grace Syphert

Stan,
and you're a great guy and have lots and lots of talent. Good luck in little theatre this summer, Fall etc. Hope you pledge a good fraternity like Roberts. Take care
Luv ya
Tucy Lupton

Stan
you're a great guy. Be sure you stay that way. You have the stuff to reach any goal you set. Just Remember that and you'll go far. Good Luck to you in whatever you do.

Love
Pat Lowmaste

Stan,
Well we finally made it to the seniors. Someday
Mr. Butts will think back and miss us. Be good and best of luck in the future.

Love ya.
Cathy Milner

Stan:

You're a really nice guy.
That's what makes it so hard to picture you at the Ohio University, whose major college is Snobbery. Oh well. When you get tired of the phonies there, come see us farmers.
You can practice your gardening (we'll find a substitute for Pat P. Remember me when you're slaving over a typewriter or a last-minute scoop.

One man can change
the lives of others,
until no longer wayward,
they return to straightened paths
mid happy green pastures.
You are all this and more.
Good luck,

Stan, I have two very short poems for you. The first is supposed to be funny, not chopping and I hope you don't get grossed. Remember, I know what a great piano player you are. I truly mean the second.
That's Stan.

Great Man.
He can play pian.
Hot damn.
